RIOMAGGIORE

*S*mall village of maritime origin, located in the easternmost part of the Cinque Terre, it discerns the crystalline waters of the Ligurian Sea, close to the Apennines. Set in the Mediterranean, its fragrance recalls the salty air in the sparkling and enveloping top note of the Cypress, along with the aromatic and spicy essence of fir and basil. The citrus olfactory notes are emphasized by the heart notes of the exotic flower of sweet Ylang-Ylang and the green note of Sage, which reveals the fruity side of the fragrant herb. Finally, the oriental background notes: Patchouly and Incense.

*A*ncient village of the Ligurian Riviera di Levante, the smallest of the villages of the Cinque Terre and the only one not directly facing the sea, stands on the top of a promontory. Its fragrance is a mix of fresh notes, typically citrus and woody, inspired by the strong and intense hint of the Bergamot top note, which recalls the sea and its aromas. The heart is enriched by the aromatic and amber notes of Ginger and Black Pepper, together with the Juniper Berries, which give a unique tone of freshness. Finally, base notes of Musk of Oak and Sandalwood with a sweet and balsamic scent.

CORNIGLIA

V

ery close to Riomaggiore, the two villages are connected by a singular and evocative path carved into the cliffs, known all over the world as the Via dell'Amore. Its fragrance opens with a fresh citrus explosion in the top notes of the nectar of Bergamot, followed by the woody heart of the heart notes of leather and cedar with warm aromatic and woody scents. The sweetness of the Date and the inebriating fragrance of honey recall scents typical of its Mediterranean vegetation. On the bottom, the amber notes of Musk and vanilla bean Tonka with a spicy essence.

MANAROLA

MONTEROSSO

I

n the westernmost part of the Cinque Terre, rises the largest and oldest village of this territory, within a natural gulf of singular beauty. Characteristic of its landscape are the grape-vineyard terraces near the coast.

Its scent opens in a concert with pink and red hues in the sweet and sour head notes of blueberry and mandarin and the aromatic scent of grapes. From the warm fruity of the head, to the notes of heart from the scents of spring, a bouquet of white flowers.

VERNAZZA

*J*udged as one of the most beautiful Ligurian villages in Italy, it is located in a magical bay, the only natural harbor in the Cinque Terre National Park, whose landscape runs along the Vernazzola stream. Its sparkling fragrance opens in the top notes of Mediterranean citrus, a burst of energy of the perfumed arrangement of the orange blossoms, the freshness of the grapefruit and the woody and floral nuances of the Petitgrain. Floral notes of Violetta heart with a refined and intense scent, the sweetness of Geranio and Ciclamino. Finally, the Queen of essences, the Rose, with an unmistakable touch of elegance.
